Celebrations of friends and friendship

Every year on the first Sunday of August, people around the world celebrate Friendship Day. Popular presents for friends include flowers, chocolates and photos but the most popular one is a friendship bracelet or band. On Friendship Day, friends call each other, chat on the internet, send texts or e-cards to each other and if they can, they spend the day together.

This day was first celebrated in the USA in 1935, but it has become popular in many other countries. People in Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay have a similar special occasion and on July 20 they celebrate Día del Amigo (Friends' Day). This celebration was started by an Argentine called Enrique Febbrara. He believed that the moon landing by the American space rocket Apollo 11 in 1969 united people all over the world and that when they were watching the first astronauts walk on the Moon, everyone was a friend of the astronauts. Then, in 1979, Friends' Day (July 20) was made an official celebration by the government of Argentina.

Friends' Day in Argentina is a time for everyone to enjoy time with their best friends. The day usually begins with calling friends. The phone lines are usually busy and sometimes the mobile phone networks stop working for a while. In Argentina, the real celebrations for Friends' Day take place in the evening. Friends get together in restaurants and cafés. Normally these places have special meals or events to celebrate this day.

There are now many blogs or sites about Friends' or Friendship Day on the internet so if you want to find out more about these two special celebrations, have a look for yourself.
